These Rules and Regulations may be amended by the Board at a regularly scheduled meeting by a simple majority of an established quorum.

ARTICLE X - MISCELLANEOUS RULES/REGULATIONS

10.1 Position Statements

- A. A position statement is a concise articulation of the Organization's opinion on any issue that can be used by a member, media or other organization to communicate Organization's stance.
- B. The Organization's name and stationery shall not be used nor any office holder shall not speak for the Organization regarding a particular issue unless the Executive Board has taken a position on the particular issue.
- C. Organization members, committees, or task forces may draft a position statement pertinent to the strategic plan of the Organization. See Rules & Regulations, Article III, 3.2K.

Position draft must contain:

- 1. Position Statement

2. Justification of need for the Organization to adopt a formal position on this matter.
 3. Risks/benefits/limitations to the Position Statement.
 4. Proposal for use of the statement, e.g., pro-active, reactive, how to communicate the statement and to whom.
 5. Anticipated response to statements from key groups.
- D. Adoption Process
1. A draft should be submitted to the appropriate committee for review.
 - a. If the statement does not pertain directly to any committee function, it should be submitted to the Board.
 2. After committee review, a draft will be submitted to the Board for approval.
 3. The position statement will be communicated to general membership.
- E. Exception to Standard Process
1. Situations will arise needing prompt attention and adoption of a position statement when committee review is not feasible.
 - a. Submit position statement to President or members of the Executive Council.
 - b. The statement must be approved by a quorum of the Board at a Board meeting, through a telephone vote or electronic mail.
 - c. The position statement and process by which it was approved must be communicated as rapidly as possible to the full membership.
- F. Use of Approved Position Statements
1. Formal release to media and other organizations may be done by any member of WONE; however, it will usually be coordinated by the Board.
 2. Position statements may be released to any interested person or organization.
- G. Format

1. All position statements will be stated directly using action verbs and a pro-active posture.
2. The first statement will contain the key points of the Organization's position, e.g., "WONE supports..."
3. Further information will follow the position statement delineating the background for the position statement, e.g., the Organizations philosophy, beliefs, research and interest.

10.2 Conflict of Interest

- A. Annually the secretary will distribute the Conflict of Interest statement for signature by
 - 1) Officers
 - 2) Board members
 - 3) Chairpersons
 - 4) Co-Chairpersons
- B. The permanent file will be maintained by the secretary for seven (7) years.

10.3 Mail voting on issues - See Bylaws Article V, 5.5E

- A. The proposed issue with background information shall be mailed to eligible voting members via e-mail or postal mail if no e-mail address is available.
- B. The votes shall be reported by the Secretary to the Board.
- C. A simple majority vote of those ballots returned shall determine the results.
- D. The results of the vote shall be communicated to the membership.

10.4 Membership Lists including contact information

- A. WONE shall maintain two membership lists including contact information. These will be updated annually to reflect current membership.
 1. A full membership list will be kept and made available to members for the purposes of communication and networking. This list will also be used to conduct WONE business, as needed.
 2. In addition, a limited membership list will be kept and be made available for sale to members and outside organizations/individuals as specified in 10.4 C & D.
- B. All members will have the option of omitting their names and contact information in the limited membership list. This option will be made available upon application for membership and at all subsequent renewals of membership.

- C. The limited membership list will be available at a set fee to members, upon approval of the Membership Chairperson to:
 - 1. For the purpose of research relevant to the broad purposes of WONE.
 - 2. For the purpose of distributing information on educational seminars sponsored by other than the Organization.
- D. The limited membership lists will be available at a set fee to non-members after approval by the Membership Chairperson. Vendors exhibiting at the Annual Business Meeting may purchase membership lists at the set fee.
- E. Revenues received from the sale of membership lists will be submitted to the Treasurer.
- F. The Membership Chairperson will report distribution of membership list at each board meeting.

10.5 Organizational Records

Minutes and other Organization documents will not be accessible to anyone outside the Organization's membership unless so approved by the Board.
