

RN, Supervisor, Surgery

Gundersen Health System delivers cutting-edge medicine to people in the Tri-State Region. We also believe that medicine is about people and that's why our outcomes are among the nation's best; making this a place you'd be proud to work. Gundersen Health System is where nationally recognized quality meets dedicated, compassionate professionals, caring for patients in all stages of life.

Gundersen Health System is looking to hire a RN, Supervisor for the Heart, Vascular, Urology, GYN, General Surgery and Robotics Departments. The RN, Supervisor will assume the day-to-day shift accountability for the provision of quality services and Collaborate with the leadership team to develop and meet goals and objectives. They will act as a consultant to staff, physicians, and other members of the health care team and assists with the development of policies and procedures to support the provision of superior quality personnel care.

This position will work the primary hours of Monday thru Friday 6:15am to 3:45pm.

POSITION QUALIFICATIONS

Education and Learning:

Required:

- Associate degree in Nursing from an accredited college of nursing, as recognized by the Accreditation Commission for Education in Nursing or Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education.
- Bachelor's degree in Nursing, from an accredited nursing program (ACEN or CCNE), is required within six years of hire date.
- Graduates from nursing programs which are not accredited by ACEN or CCNE, must have at least one year of recent RN experience from an applicable care setting.

Work Experience:

Required:

- 1 year of clinical nursing experience or an equivalent combination of education, training, and years of experience. Experience working in an organization of similar size and complexity.

License and Certifications:

Required:

- Registered Nurse (RN) licensed to practice in the state of employment, some positions may require multiple licenses
- Current American Heart Association (AHA) Healthcare Provider CPR certification; Heart Saver, Rescue and Military training network CPR; or the American Red Cross CPR certification (CPR) except Citizen and Animal classes

Interested individuals should visit our website and fill out an online application at <http://www.gundersenhealth.org/careers>

Equal Opportunity Employer