

Westfields Hospital & Clinic
535 Hospital Road
New Richmond, WI 54017
westfieldshospital.com

Come join our team at Westfields Hospital&Clinic, a full-service medical campus offering emergency services, primary care and specialty clinics, pharmacy, as well as inpatient, outpatient and maternity care. Part of HealthPartners, we're located just 30 minutes east of the Twin Cities in the beautiful St. Croix Valley Region.

Responsibilities include: The Medical Surgical Manager supervises the staff (RN, CNA, HUC, SW, Case Manager, Chaplain) on the medical surgical nursing areas, including the High Observation area. The Medical Surgical Manager is responsible for the direction of patient care in the assigned areas for both adult and pediatric patients. Manages staff, including hiring, evaluating, coaching, disciplining, terminating. Oversees the overall functioning of the med/ surg nursing areas. Works collaboratively with the physician, House Supervisor and other disciplines to promote quality, safe patient care. Consults other departments to provide for an interdisciplinary approach to the patient's care. (i.e. dietary, social services, physical medicine, respiratory therapy, quality/utilization management, facilities, financial, HIM.). Prepares department budget with finance and works to stay within parameters. Provides emotional and clinical support to staff, patients and their families. Assigns and oversees orientation of new employees to the department. Ensures staff meet all licensure and educational requirements. Reviews/approves time cards for employees.

Qualifications: BS or BA in Nursing or related field required. Registered Nurse licensure in the State of Wisconsin required. At least 3 year of nursing management experience preferred. At least 3 years of recent hospital nursing experience as a RN preferred. BLS/CPR certification preferred. Nursing care and care delegated to others to ensure adherence to ethical and legal standards.

Apply online at www.westfieldshospital.com/resources/careers